BIOGRAPHY

Rodney M. Loesch
CFP®

—RODNEY speaks from experience. As an entrepreneur he built a successful business in the financial services industry; built a leadership role in his community, and became known as a leader in both. In his financial services business, Rodney has successfully met the needs of professionals, small business owners and corporate executives. He continues his career-related education to stay on the cutting edge of industry developments with his designation of Certified Financial Planner™(CFP®).

A former national sales manager and trainer for an international corporation, he is a participant in the Kansas City Star newspaper’s “Money Make-Over” series, and is a columnist for “Ask Us” in their Moneywise magazine. He shares his leadership expertise as an elected trustee of Moberly Area Community College and a board member of both the Missouri Golf Association, and the Financial Planning Association of Greater Kansas City. Rodney holds a Bachelor’s degree in social studies and economics and a Juris Doctorate. He has served as an outstanding leader on numerous boards and commissions such as Special Olympics, City of Moberly Airport Commission and Diocese of Jefferson City Finance Committee.
